

Wealth and Business Preservation Conference 2007

Safe-haven - As a high net worth individual you are probably searching for a safe-haven domicile. A second home from where you can conduct your businesses, manage your assets whilst living the tranquil life you so desire with your family. Curaçao can be this domicile for you.

Asset protection – You strive to protect your assets and wealth from outside influences, to safeguard your belongings in order to preserve your privacy and lifestyle. You want to make sure that the wealth you have built up over a lifetime and for which you have worked so hard is safe. With its top-notch financial services providers and its amenities in place, Curaçao is the jurisdiction you are looking for.

Family safety – You want only the best for your family. They are most important in your life. It is practically your number one priority to protect these loved ones. Curaçao offers a broad range of services and facilities providing your family a safe and happy life. You can concentrate on your businesses and stop worrying about the safety of your family.

Your needs – You require a new domicile to satisfy the following standards:

Business-related needs

- Political stability
- Independent and high-quality Court of Justice
- Environment with civil as well as common law structure; strong connection to European law structure
- Free access to foreign currency such as US Dollar and Euro
- Highly developed telecommunications infrastructure with broadband Internet access at a par with the international financial services centers of the world
- Excellent international financial planning options via tax treaty network of Holland
- Highly professional staff
- High-quality supervisory body
- Compliance with international standards of integrity and approved by the OECD and FATF
- Protection by high standard anti-money laundering provisions

Lifestyle-related needs

- Spanish-speaking population
- Excellent flight connections to major cities in USA, Europe and Latin America
- Parking facilities for your private jet and (private) docking for your yacht
- Favorable geographic location and short distance to Latin America
- Many options for high-quality living
- Condos in gated communities for superb life-style living; many including waterfront access
- Attractive retirement plan for “pensionados”
- High-quality education for your children
- Many (after) school facilities for your children

Curaçao offers you all of the above...!

Wealth and Business Preservation Conference 2007

Conference details

Join us on this 4-day conference to meet a distinguished group of guest speakers and discuss your options to use our legal and fiscal system to your advantage. This is your unique chance to explore your options for wealth, business preservation and personal safety for you and your loved ones.

During this conference you will find out what living in Curaçao feels like. You will have ample opportunity to speak to experts on estate planning real estate, tourism development projects etc. Talk to foreign entrepreneurs and resident expatriates on their experience of living on Curaçao. Interact freely with bankers, tax advisers, real estate agents, attorneys, fund managers, notaries and investment managers to find out how to make the available services and facilities work for you.

We guarantee that during these four exciting days you will gather all the knowledge necessary to make your decision in taking this important step for you, your family and your business and invest in a second home on the island of Curaçao.

The venue is tropical, the amenities are professional and the presentations are worth your while. All this –depending on where you live in Latin America– often at less than a one-hour flight from your country.

Don't let others tell you what possibilities there are on Curaçao, experience them first-hand.

Wealth and Business Preservation Conference 2007

Program and itinerary

The conference is divided into two separate programs, which will take place simultaneously. One program involves the business aspects of Curaçao, while the other program involves the life on Curaçao. Through this set-up, you and your spouse will have an overall idea of the specific facilities and opportunities that Curaçao offers.

- Thursday, September 6 Flight to Curaçao, check into the Marriott Hotel or another hotel of your choice. High class private accommodations for families are also available. Private shuttle service from airport to your hotel. Pick up-service from the hotel to the Central Bank of the Netherlands Antilles for the official opening of the Conference, followed by introductory speeches about Curaçao as the perfect offshore domicile and the preservation of your wealth and business. Happy hour afterwards in the magnificent Atrium of the Central Bank and BBQ dinner on the Marriott beach accompanied by live music and a cultural show.
- Friday, September 7 Full breakfast meal at the Marriott Ball Room, followed by presentations at the business facilities of the World Trade Center. Find out about the E-zone activities, the airport and marina services available. At noon there will be a special lunch served at the Marriott Ball Room, where you will have plenty of time to mingle with the experts and guests speakers and perhaps make a private appointment to discuss your personal wishes. After lunch there will be several tours to the specific locations mentioned in the morning, followed by a grand dinner event at the five-star Kura Hulanda with a Living history show.
- Saturday, September 8 After breakfast on Saturday there will be presentations on the investment possibilities in Curaçao. Simultaneously, the Living program is full blast about education possibilities and exquisite living options at the waterfront. Tours will be arranged to show you the most beautiful spots on the island. This evening will be concluded with a special Surprise dinner event.
- Sunday, September 9 Free at your own leisure to explore the island and take one of the special tours arranged. If you are participating in the conference only, you will fly back home today. Off course you are free to stay longer and know more about the island and your personal options. Our service providers will be happy to assist
